DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1958, wish to express our deep-felt appreciation to those who have given of their time and efforts to make us better students and citizens.

They have always encouraged us, understood our problems, and participated in our activities.

And so to our parents, we are proud to dedicate this, the 1958 copy of "The Oak".

CLASS HISTORY

MEMORIES

One frosty September morning in 1946 a group of timid youngsters broke away from their Mother's apron strings to make their first venture out into the world alone.

A welcoming smile from Mrs. Mildred Smathers succeeded in making us feel that school wasn't the terror that some of us feared. Those graduating this year who started to school together on that first day are: Pat Anderson, Harold Apple, Jerry Clapp, Glenn Ray Cook, S. G. Gannon, Betty Lou Garner, Bobby Isley, Barbara Jobe, Mollie King, Jean Raye Martin, Joanne Smith, and Bobby Whitesell. Joe Sam Edmonds joined this group after Christmas.

We entered the second grade to meet the kind and patient Mrs. Callie Smith. At the beginning of this year Jannette Brown joined us.

In spite of all the various rumors we had encountered about Miss Gertrude Rule and her Black Ruler we third graders found her most congenial.

Our year in the fourth grade with Mrs. Cora Clapp we faced another problem. The school burned. Consequently the completion of that year was spent in a narrow hall, but due to Mrs. Clapp's guiding hand we were passed to the fifth grade.

This year under the supervision of Mrs. Margaret Coltrane we attended classes in the Community Building. We welcomed Bennie Register at the beginning of the year.

A group of over-anxious sixth graders found that under Mr. R. Edens new experiences were only beginning. We were very happy to move into the new school building after Christmas.

A smiling Mrs. Margaret Freeze made our adventures in the seventh grade very pleasant.

Upon completion of the seventh grade a noisy group of teenagers were pleased to meet Mrs. Ianthia LaMarr who helped prepare us for high school. Carolyn Braswell and Bonnie Welborn became our classmates this year.

A dream come true; we were Freshmen! The faculty was composed of Mr. Z. L. Bowden, Mr. E. A. Adams, Mr. D. L. Motley, Mrs. Sarah Haithcox, Mrs. J. G. Clapp, and Mr. R. D. Haithcox as home room teacher. We filled our schedules to the brim with lessons, club activities, and sports.

After a year's work we gained the title of Sophomores. Our instructors this year were Mr. Bowden, Mr. Adams, Mr. & Mrs. Motley, Mrs. Clapp, and Mrs. Eunice Whisonant. Mrs. D. L. Motley was our homeroom teacher.

JUNIORS -- my how proud we were. We immediately began to rush for there was much to be accomplished. An order was placed for our Class Rings and we received them in November. Under the direction of Mrs. Joe Ervin our Junior play, "Aunt Samantha Rules the Roost", was a huge success. Miss Marie Essa, our homeroom teacher, and Mrs. Avery helped us plan a very delightful Junior-Senior Banquet which was held at the Plantation Supper Club April 11, 1957. Rachel Lowe, Billy Overman, and Thomas Sears Jr. joined us this year. New faculty members were Miss Marie Essa, Mrs. W. E. Avery and Mr. R. L. Hicks.

We had achieved our goal. We were SENIORS. There were many decisions to be made. An order was placed for our invitations, caps and gowns, and diplomas. The annual staff worked very hard to publish a book of which the Seniors would be proud. The Senior play, "The Redheaded Step-Child", was directed by Mrs. Clapp, our homeroom teacher. We enjoyed the Junior-Senior Banquet very much. Upon the arrival of Nancy Kivett and Nancy Turner there were twenty-two members of the Senior Class. New faculty members were Mr. Bobby Andrews and Mr. Alex Larson.

As we step out from our graduation, we go our separate ways. No matter in what direction we travel nor by what door we reach our goal, we know that the experiences of school life have helped in making us what we are to be.

Barbara Jobe, Historian

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of 1958, realizing that the close of our school days are near at hand, feel that in order that all trace of us shall not be forgotten in the future, think it wise to leave something to those who in the future will undertake to fill our places.

In the course of our high school days, naturally, we have accumulated various and valuable possessions; our years have been fruitful. We have acquired a vast store of knowledge along with other things that will help us through our lives. Since we are burdened with some superfluous possessions, we think it wise to dispose of them; too, we realize that the school would have a great loss without us or our valuable possessions. The upperclassmen, especially the Juniors, would be handicapped if we took all our valuable assets with us. Therefore, these we dispose as follows:

To our Alma Mater, we bequeath our sincere gratitude for many wonderful and cherished memories.

To our faithful principal, Mr. Bowden, we give our thanks for his understanding, patience, and guidance during our high school career.

To our teachers, who are our friends and helpers, we give our thanks for their patience and guidance in helping us to reach our goal.

Words cannot express our appreciation to Mr. Larson, our sponsor, whose many hours of devoted time has helped us in reaching our goal.

To the Junior Class, we leave the honor of being Seniors for the first time and all the privileges and responsibilities that accompany the title.

We, Rachel Lowe and Thomas Sears, leave our superlative of "Most Likely to Succeed" to Hilda Key and Lawrence Murphy.

We, Jannette Brown and Glenn Ray Cook, leave our superlative of "Most Dependable" to Edith Owens and Willard Myers.

We, S. G. Gannon and Joe Sam Edmonds, leave our superlative of "Biggest Clock Watchers" to James McDonald, Gladys Apple and Ethel Hill.

We, Patsy Anderson and Billy Overman, leave our superlative of "Best Dressed" to Alice Ann Starr and Roger Boone.

We, Rachel Lowe and Billy Overman, leave our superlative of "Most Talented" to Becky Snow and Larry Gerringer.

I, Jannette Brown, leave my superlative of "Most Attractive" to Margaret Whitesell.

I, Glenn Ray Cook, leave my superlative of "Best Looking" to Roger Boone.

We, Carolyn Braswell and Molly King, leave our superlative of "Most Understanding" to Jerry Murrell, Margie Wyrick, and Martha Carter.

We, Betty Lou Garner and Bobby Isley, leave our superlative of "Most Bashful" to Leroy Rierison, Elizabeth Montgomery, and Lucille Gann.

We, S. G. Gannon and Molly King, leave our superlative of "Most Daring" and "Most Cautious" to Jerry Loggins, Peggy Anderson, and Irene Rigney.

We, Harold Apple and Barbara Jobe, leave our superlative of "Most Athletic" to Ervin Cook and Hilda Key.

We, Joanne Smith and Harold Apple, leave our superlative of "Biggest Flirt" to Larry Gerringer and Lynda Wyrick.

We, Bennie Register and Carolyn Braswell, leave our superlative of "Most Courteous" to Lawrence Murphy, Nancy Harvell, and Remona Mitchell.

We, Tommy Sears and Barbara Jobe, leave our superlative of "Most Dignified" to Margaret Whitesell and Jerry Murrell.

We, Jean Raye Martin and Betty Lou Garner, leave our superlative of "Most Intellectual" to Lawrence Murphy and Nancy Moore.

We, Bennie Register and Jean Raye Martin, leave our superlative of "Most Thoughtful" to Jerry Martin and Lois Key.

We, Joanne Smith and Bobby Isley, leave our superlative of "Most Ambitious" to Barbara Rush and Jerry Goad.

We, Bonnie Welborn and Joe Sam Edmonds, leave our superlative of "Most Carefree" to Eleanor LaMarr, Jim Dan Edmonds and Becky Snow.

We, Bonnie Welborn and Jerry Clapp, leave our superlative of "Wittiest" to Anne Bell Welborn, Robert Robertson, and Caroline McLean.

We, Nancy Kivett and Jerry Clapp, leave our superlative of "Cutest" to Doris Bowman, Dorothy Bowman and Jerry Martin.

We, Bobby Whitesell and Pat Anderson, leave our superlative of "Best All 'Round" to Ervin Cook and Sylvia Fryar.

We, Bobby Whitesell and Nancy Kivett, leave our superlative of "Most Popular" to Jimmy Stanley and Margaret Whitesell.

CLASS PROPHECY

A LOOK INTO THE FUTURE

It is the summer of '68. I decided on my vacation last month to go back to my old home town of McLeansville to see how my classmates were prospering. I had not seen any of them for ten years, so I was very anxious to see them again.

Upon arriving in McLeansville, I went to see Mrs. Clapp, our senior advisor. She told me she had retired from teaching and was very happy to devote all her time to her home. She also told me that Jean Raye Martin is now teaching the third grade at McLeansville. Jean Raye is doing very well and all the children love her.

After talking with Mrs. Clapp, I went to see Carolyn Braswell. Carolyn is a secretary for a large firm in Greensboro.

Carolyn told me that Bobby Whitesell is the owner of Whitesell Electric Company. I was glad to learn of his success.

My next encounter was with Nancy Kivett. Nancy has become one of the most famous fashion designers in the world. She has designed clothes for many well-known movie stars. As I didn't have much time, Nancy told me about most of my other classmates.

Bobby Isley owns a large dairy farm near McLeansville. I was not surprised at this, as Bobby had always liked farming.

I was delighted to hear that Glenn Ray Cook is working for the F.B.I. I'm glad that his dreams have come true.

As Barbara Jobe had always liked to draw, she put her talents to work and has become a very famous commercial artist.

Bennie Register has become very successful as a diesel mechanic.

I was very glad to hear that Rachel Lowe has become a singer. She has written two hit songs and has recorded them herself.

Jannette Brown has become a doctor's assistant. She is planning to quit soon and start her career as a home maker.

S. G. Gannon has become a skilled electrician. He told me that he is planning to go into business for himself soon.

S. G. told me that Joe Sam Edmonds has become a very good telephone lineman.

My next visit took me to the home of Patsy Anderson. Patsy is a history teacher at Bessemer High School.

Patsy informed me that Joanne Smith is now Dr. Thomas H. Sears' nurse. Remembering her own visits to the dentist, Joanne is very kind and patient to Dr. Sears' patients.

Marlene King, I learned, has become a successful cosmetologist and is owner of a beauty salon on Main Street.

I also learned that Nancy Turner is a private secretary for a large Greensboro firm.

I went to see Harold Apple after leaving Patsy's home. Harold is a state highway patrolman and is very happy in his career.

Harold told me that Bonnie Welborn is a registered nurse at the Moses Cone Memorial Hospital. Bonnie had always wanted to be a nurse, and I was delighted to hear of her success.

As I was leaving McLeansville, I saw Billy Overman. He told me he had just returned from a trip to Hawaii. Even during high school days he had wanted to be foot loose and fancy free, so he is enjoying traveling.

Billy told me that Jerry Clapp had earned the reputation of being a good mechanic. I was glad to hear of this.

After these visits I came back to New York. I was glad to get back to my job as secretary and very happy to know that my classmates of '58 were so happy and successful in their chosen professions and homes.
